

SOCIETY

GOVERNOR LUCIUS E. PINKHAM'S DINNER

Governor Lucius E. Pinkham was host last evening at a dinner party honoring Admiral and Mrs. Clifford Boush and Miss Geraldine Boush, who are soon to leave the islands. The table was most attractive with its artistic centerpiece composed of the various pastel shades of Transvaal anisles and maidenhair fern. Silver candelabra shaded in pink tones lent a soft, pretty effect. The name cards were the royal Hawaiian coat-of-arms in one corner and the guests' names in the center.

The drawing room was very pretty with tall vases holding longstemmed American Beauty roses with trailers of asparagus vine. A quartet furnished music throughout the dinner and for an hour afterwards.

The governor's guests were Admiral and Mrs. Clifford Boush and Miss Geraldine Boush, the guests of honor; Cmdr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Hart, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Samuel L. Johnson, N. O. H.; Civil Engineer and Mrs. Charles W. Parks, Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Miss Freer, Mrs. Janet Lewis, Miss Bertha Ben Taylor, Capt. Hornsby Evans, Lieut. Cmdr. Victor Houston and Paymaster William T. Gray.

COL. AND MRS. JAMES B. HOUSTON'S DINNER

On Thursday evening Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston entertained a company of friends at dinner. The table had as a central decoration a rustic basket filled with vari-colored dahlias and trailing asparagus fern. Tall white tapers in silver candlesticks were used with dainty bowls of lilacs matching the dahlias in the basket. Quaint place-cards were attractive.

Col. and Mrs. Houston's guests were Col. and Mrs. Harris L. Roberts, Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Col. and Mrs. James H. McRae, Cmdr. and Mrs. Charles Hart, U. S. N., and Maj. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds.

MISS LADY MACFARLANE'S SATURDAY DINNER

Miss Lady Macfarlane is hostess today at a picnic at Ahumahu on the other side of the island. About twenty-five young people are enjoying the many pleasures that Ahumahu affords victors at this picturesque place.

MRS. ERNEST WATERHOUSE'S LUNCHEON

On Wednesday Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse was a luncheon hostess, honoring Mrs. Gideon McD. Van Poole, her house-guest. A rock crystal rose bowl filled with pink roses was most attractive on the table. Sewing and pleasant chat made the afternoon hours pass quickly. Mrs. Waterhouse's guests were Mrs. Van Poole, Mrs. Hamilton E. Ages, Mrs. Ayers, Mrs. Florence Butler, Mrs. Randolph Buckley, Mrs. Ambrose Patterson and Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes.

DANCE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

The following card was sent early this week to the smart set of Honolulu: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bishop request the pleasure of your company at the Country Club Wednesday evening, August Sixteenth, Nineteen hundred and sixteen at eight o'clock dancing.

MRS. CYRIL HOGGS' INFORMAL AFTERNOON

Mrs. Cyril Hogs invited in a half dozen friends on Thursday afternoon to play golf, honoring Miss Helen McLean, who leaves shortly for the mainland. Pink flowers were used to decorate the living-room, where the guests were seated. Those invited were Miss Helen McLean, the guest of honor; Miss Olive Day, Miss Vera Day, Mrs. Alfred Eames, Miss Doris Noble, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Mrs. Geoffrey Podmore and Miss Janet Sharp.

THE FORT KAMEHAMEHA HOP

A very pleasant hop was enjoyed last evening by the officers and ladies of Fort Kamehameha. Several small informal dinners were held prior to the dance. Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter entertained, as did Capt. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and several others. A number of service people from the other posts as well as local folk motored out and thoroughly enjoyed the moonlight dance. Kamehameha is one of the prettiest Oahu posts, as the houses are well adapted to this climate and well disposed. A splendid lot of trees have been put out, and the future beauty of the post seems assured. Kamehameha also boasts one of the best of the army bands, so that dancing to the strains of its music is a real pleasure.

Mrs. M. L. Copeland, bride of M. L. Copeland of the Mills School faculty and executive staff. Their marriage occurred on the coast recently. She was Miss Ethel Woodworth of Warsaw, New York.

A COUNTRY CLUB DINNER

Friday evening Mr. Paul Bartlett entertained a company of guests at a very charming dinner at the Country Club. A centerpiece was composed of pink roses, pink sweet peas and lace fern. The name cards were dainty bits of pasteboard and marked places for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Stalneck, Mrs. Reed, Miss Rust, Miss Ruth Johnson, Mr. W. Johnson, Mr. J. Howard Worrall, Mr. Howard Grace and the host.

MRS. FREDERICK PHISTERER'S LUNCHEON

Today Mrs. Frederick Phisterer entertained at luncheon. It was a pink luncheon. The center of the table was ornamented with a basket filled with pink roses and lace fern. Dainty name cards marked each cover. Bridge was played after luncheon. The friends enjoying Mrs. Phisterer's hospitality are Mrs. John E. Baird, Miss Marley, Miss Drau, Mrs. Albert Horner, Mrs. E. L. Gordon, Mrs. Harold Loomis, Mrs. Smead of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Robert Edwards, Mrs. George Perkins and Mrs. Hugh J. Keerr.

MISS EDITH GIBSON A LINEN SHOWER HOSTESS

Miss Gertrude Ripley is the motif today for a linen shower given by Miss Edith Gibson. "Five hundred" was the game played by the guests for the first part of the afternoon, then all were invited to the laud for refreshments, when the surprise of linen was given. A well with a bucket carried up the linen treasures, with woe Gibson Ripley attending to the hoisting and lowering of the bucket. The room was decorated with quantities of yellow blossoms, golden coreopsis and golden shower, with palms and ferns.

Lenthan, a long brass hammered tray, and to Mrs. Wheeler, a Japanese water pitcher of unique design. A guest gift went to Mrs. Halston, a very handsome silver bon-bon spoon with "Honolulu" on the handle, which will always be a pleasant reminder of the time spent at Fort Shafter.

Mrs. Bell was assisted by Mrs. Witsell, Mrs. C. S. Lincoln, Mrs. George M. Halloran and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall.

Mrs. Bell's guests were the ladies from Fort Shafter only. The guests bidden to meet Mrs. Halston were Mrs. Witsell, Mrs. M. Pearson, Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. John E. Hunt, Mrs. C. S. Lincoln, Mrs. Carl Hardigg, Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Robert H. Peck, Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Mrs. Grady, Madame Cochran, Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall and Mrs. George M. Halloran.

DINNER-DANCE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Mr. Charles Dana Wright and Mr. Robert Scott were joint hosts at a dinner given on Friday evening at the Country Club. A low, broad basket was artistically filled with Cecil Brunner and Le France roses, pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern. The name cards depicted island scenes. Dancing was the program after dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Wyatt, Miss Musto, Miss Georgia Purcell, Miss Serena Maddux and Mr. Alan Hamilton.

LIEUT. AND MRS. HAROLD LOOMIS' DINNER

At the Country Club on Monday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Loomis entertained at dinner, honoring their house-guest, Mrs. Smead of Norfolk, Virginia. A rock crystal bowl held long-stemmed American Beauty roses and lace fern, while bud vases held long-stemmed American Beauty were very prettily hand-painted.

Lieut. and Mrs. Loomis' guests were Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Phisterer, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Benjamin F. Tilley, Maj. and Mrs. Charles A. Ragan, Miss McCue, Maj. William S. Gulnarr and Lieut. Samuel Tighman. Dancing was enjoyed later, a splendid quintet furnishing the music.

COL. AND MRS. ALFRED HUNTER ENTERTAIN

Last evening Col. and Mrs. Alfred Hunter entertained with a dinner-dance at their quarters at Fort Kamehameha. American Beauty roses graced the center of the table at dinner.

Col. and Mrs. Hunter's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Maj. and Mrs. Michael Lenthan, Capt. and Mrs. James Gallogly, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Capt. and Mrs. Walter C. Baker, Mrs. Bradley and Miss Hunter. After dinner, the hop at the post was enjoyed.

LIEUT. AND MRS. ROBERT O. EDWARDS' SWIMMING PARTY

This evening Lieut. and Mrs. Robert O. Edwards are entertaining a company of friends with a swim and supper at the Outrigger Club. After a swim a chowder will be served. Lieut. and Mrs. Edwards' guests will include Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter, Miss Hunter, Capt. and Mrs. George T. Perkins and Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes.

THE COUNTRY CLUB DANCE

About a hundred and fifty guests enjoyed the moonlight dance given by the Country Club directors last night.

It was a perfect night, a splendid breeze from the hills making the dancing particularly restful. Several dinners were given, including those by Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Miss Florence Butler, Mr. Charles Dana Wright and Mr. Robert Scott, Mr. Paul Bartlett and Lieut. Charles Lyman. After dinner dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

MOONLIGHT SWIMMING PARTY

The ladies of Vida Villa were the guests of the gentlemen at a moonlight swimming party held at the Outrigger Club Friday evening. A chowder supper was served after the swim and an informal dance followed, which completed a thoroughly enjoyable evening. About 40 were present.

CAPT. AND MRS. EDWARD HART-SHORN'S LUNCHEON

Today Capt. and Mrs. Edward Hart-Shorn are giving a luncheon honoring Mrs. Witsell and her house-guest, Mrs. Hugh Halston, who leaves next month for her Mississippi home.

MR. AND MRS. E. FAXON BISHOP'S DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop entertained at the Country Club on Friday evening. It being the club's dance night, the affair was doubly delightful. Covers were laid for eight guests.

A MOONLIGHT DANCE

Last Saturday evening Mr. M. Watt and Mr. Ralph Gray were hosts at a dancing party given at the Gray home, Walkiki. A splendid quintet furnished excellent dance music. The grounds and lanais were strung with vari-colored lights which, after a while, promptly went out and the dance went on in the moonlight until "lights on." Late in the evening refreshments were served and dancing resumed. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Watt and Mrs. L. M. Gray.

The guests were Misses Marian Chapin, Mildred Chapin, Gertrude Ripley, Inez Gibson, Hazel Buckland, M. Hawke, D. Hawke, Beatrice Halstead, Gladys Halstead, Mary Smith, Dorothy Walker, Sophie Walker, Louise Girvin, Doris Noble, B. Seabolt, R. Seabolt, Helen McLean, Hester Pratt, Sibyl Carter, F. Arnold, Ramona Morgan, Clemence Gifford and others and Messrs. Carter, Galt, Alfred Young, De Witt Alexander, William Paty, Fred Carter, Sam Carter, Platt Cooke, Chas. Brown, Ernest Gray, W. Eberly, C. Eberly, Watson Ballentine, Arthur Brown, Shirley Bush, Gavin Bush, Scott Pratt, Donald Young, Gustav Ballentine, Claude King, Harold Morgan, Bill Noble, Chas. Littlejohn, A. Armitage and others.

MISS KATHRINE ELSTON GIVES A PARTY AT WAILALE

This evening Miss Kathrine Elston is entertaining with one of the largest dancing parties given this summer. It is a party of the younger set at the Francis Gays' Wailale home, which Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan are occupying during their visit to Honolulu. Mrs. Jordan is Miss Elston's mother. Mrs. Elston was the pretty May Hart. Ginger stalks and blossoms are to decorate the lovely, spacious rooms. Wailale is one of the very loveliest spots on Oahu, not far away from the city and yet when one gets there it is almost-out of the world. Since the Gays purchased this lovely estate from Mr. Allen Herbert they have made a very picturesque place of it. A deep natural swimming pool greets the guest and a torrent of cold mountain water rushes in and drops a hundred feet.

Tonight groves in the way of palms and huge hanging baskets are to be arranged overhead and in different parts of the house. Miss Elston's guests are to be Miss Jessie Baldwin, Miss Rhoda Ballentine, Miss Helen Church, Miss Sibyl Carter, Miss Helen Cente, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Madeline Chapin, Miss Marjory Guild, Miss Ruth Gartley, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Marie Humphries, Miss Elsa Hjorth, Miss Gerd Hjorth, Miss Janet Kilbourne, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Laura Low, Miss Marian Paris, Miss Ruth Stackler, Miss Alice Schulz, Mr. De Witt Alexander, Mr. Shirley Bush, Mr. Arthur Brown, Mr. George Bromley, Mr. Bryant Cooper, Mr. Sam Carter, Mr. Chauncey Cleveland, Mr. Cook of San Francisco, Mr. Jack Dassel, Mr. Ralph Gray, Mr. Ernest Gray, Mr. D. Hitchcock, Mr. Howard Hitchcock, Mr. Donald Hayselden, Mr. Ernest Mott-Smith, Mr. Stanley Mott-Smith, Mr. Fred Peterson, Mr. Franklin Richardson, Mr. Gordon Scott, Mr. Tom Singlehurst, Mr. Derwent Stanley, Mr. Walter Spauling, Mr. Curtis Turner, Mr. Malcolm Tuttle, Mr. Paty Van Valkenburg, Mr. Dave Withington, Mr. Redvers Waldron, Mr. Stanley Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Doolan of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macintosh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mist, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Allison Jordan.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. MAXAM'S CARD PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Maxam entertained most delightfully Thursday evening at an informal card party in honor of Mrs. James J. Carey and Miss Sadie Carey, who are soon to depart for the coast, where Miss Carey will enter Notre Dame at San Jose. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink asters and maidenhair fern. Dr. A. N. Sinclair, having the highest score for the gentlemen, was presented with a cut glass ash tray, while Mrs. J. A. Basham, carrying highest honors for the ladies, was presented with a hand-painted plate. Refreshments were served, after which dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Among those who enjoyed this pleasant evening were Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Carey, Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Sinclair, Lieut. and Mrs. L. D. Peppin, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. P. Scheid, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Basham, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Larkey, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Emma Blanchard, Miss Elizabeth McMenamin, Miss Agnes McGinn, Miss Hazel Maxam, Joseph Ignatius Fealy, Dr. J. H. Farrell, Mr. P. G. Riley, Fr. Patrick, Mr. J. Burns, Mr. D. A. Cummings and the host and hostess.

MISS MADELINE ROSS'S SUCCESS

The following clipping from a Portland, Maine, paper tells of Miss Madeline Ross's social success in the East. Miss Ross is an island girl, born and reared here, as was her mother. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross and granddaughter of Mrs. Margaret Lishman of this city.

Miss Ross is a strikingly handsome, tall girl with masses of nut-brown hair, blue eyes and beautiful pink and white complexion. Mrs. Henry M. Merriam, wife of Capt. Merriam, U. S. A., was Alice Lishman, daughter of Mr. William Lishman, also a granddaughter of "Mother" Lishman. Mrs. Merriam, since her marriage, has made her home always on the East coast, where her husband has been stationed.

"One of the most admired dancers on the floor was Miss Madeline Ross of San Francisco, who is the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Merriam at Fort Williams. She was very strikingly gowned in a dress of brilliant rose-colored satin richly brocaded with gold. The skirt was modestly puffed out in panners at the side and the underskirt was of gold brocade. A scarf of tulle was worn also, of the rose hue. Mrs. H. M. Merriam of Fort Williams was in black satin and net with odd silver garnitures."

HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL OF MAUI

Some among society folk going to the annual home harvest festival on Maui on Friday night were Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Miss Pearl McCarthy, Miss Dorothy Foster, Miss Gladys Hutchie, Mr. Alan Lowrey, Mr. Stanley Kennedy and Miss Martha Hobron. The harvest home festival is the event of the year on Maui for every sort of sport is indulged in with a grand ball for a finale. Already there to take part in the doings are a number of the smart set of Honolulu, among them Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Lois Brundred, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Hattie Lucas and Miss Violet Makee.

Miss Agnes Creighton left on the Moana Kea to spend a month on Hawaii.

"Quality First"

Clearance Sale of Shirt-Waists

MONDAY, AUGUST 14th.

A collection of Lingerie
Blouses made of White
Voiles, Crepes and Batistes.

50c
75c
and
$1.00

Attractive WAISTS in
WHITE ORGANDY
Special $1.50

A variety of Silk, Net and
Fancy Waists $2.00 to $5.00

New Sport Skirts
in Wool, Palm Beach and Wash Material

Whitney & Marsh, Ltd.

1045 Fort Street

Tel. 1725

The most convenient dish and the one sure to be appreciated is

Velvet Ice Cream

It is made today in these delicious flavors and delivered to your home:

French Plumbair, Pineapple, Caramel, Tutti Frutti,
Chocolate, Vanilla, Strawberry, Butter Scotch; Orange and Mint Sherbets.

Honolulu Dairymen's
1542 Association 4676

on Monday
Special
$1.00
Bargains
in every department.

Wash Goods Striped Skirtings
Laces, Embroideries and Millinery, Dresses

SACHS'
Hotel near Fort